Online training programme on "Making a Secure & Resilient Workplace" During 1-3 September, 2021

A three day online training programme on "Making a Secure & Resilient Workplace" for Technical/Administrative staff associated with security of ICAR Institutes and Headquarters was organised by CPRI during 1-3 September. Twenty-four participants from various ICAR institutes joined the training. The training constituted of lectures by the experts who are engaged in safety and security form CPRI and other institutions like ITBP, CIAE on the preventive measures for sensitive data, cybercrimes and also practical demonstrations by Police Department & Fire Department for safety against fire/ violence and other such issues related with security of, staff and infrastructure.